

ITR Theatre Company

ON STAGE

Nurse Jane Goes to Hawaii was ITR's most popular spring show ever!!!! Creatively directed, ably produced, beautifully acted - Nurse Jane was a triumph from both an artistic and financial perspective. The cast and crew did a wonderful job of staging the show and looking after the audiences, who had a great time at every performance. David Smith's dinner theatre offerings were, as always, spectacular. Hats off to all involved!

Now, we turn our sights to two upcoming productions. The first is a Medieval Murder Mystery on July 11th, in conjunction with the Osgoode Medieval Festival (www.osgoodemedievalfestival.com). There is a feast at Uffington Castle, the home of King Alfred and Queen Elswith, to celebrate the visit of Elswith's cousins, the King and Queen of Osgoode. Alas - the revelry is interrupted by an untimely death! Brother Cantfail and his sidekick, Mother Perpetual Pain, arrive on the scene to sort out "who done it". Secrets will be revealed, a sword fight will ensue, and the murderer will be caught by the time the evening ends.

The show will take place at the Osgoode Community Centre. Doors open at 6 and dinner, catered by the Red Dot Café, will begin at 6:30 p.m.

ITR's November 2015 show is the funny and heartwarming

On Golden Pond, written by Ernest Thompson and directed by Linda Daniluk.

Auditions will be held on June 16 and 18 at 7 p.m. at the ITR Rehearsal Hall, 5488 Osgoode Main Street.

Check the auditions page on our website at itrtheatre.com for more information.

The show will run from November 13-15 and 20-22, 2015 at the Osgoode Community Centre, with two delicious dinner theatre shows on Nov. 14th and 21st.

MOVING ON

If you've passed by the corner of Osgoode Main Street and Old George recently, you've probably seen the "For Sale" sign on ITR's rehearsal hall. We're not sure when the sale will happen but in preparation, ITR has purchased a 53-foot trailer and rented a location for it in North Gower. We'll be going through our possessions over the next couple of months in preparation for the big move, and expect it to take place before the summer is over. We're actively looking for free rehearsal space, and have at least one good possibility in the works. Stay tuned...

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING AND BBQ

Our 2015 Annual General Meeting will take place on June 26th at the home of Judy and Klaus Beltzner, 1370 River Road, Manotick. The house is on the west side of River Road, 1.9 km south of Bridge Street and just north of Rideau Forest Drive.

The meeting – ideally a brief one - will start at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by an informal BBQ. All are welcome, though only patrons and members can vote. RSVP to president@itrtheatre.com so we can be sure to have enough provisions.

KEEP IN TOUCH WITH ITR

Thanks to our very active Community Outreach committee, ITR has made huge strides in our use of social media. You can like us on Facebook (ITR Theatre Osgoode) or follow us and re-tweet us on Twitter (@ITRTheatre). There are easy links to both of these social media feeds on our website, itrtheatre.com. And you can e-mail us at info@itrtheatre.com. So many ways to stay in touch and know what we're up to! And by the way, please note: we have a new phone number, 613-800-1165, and have recently registered ITR Theatre Company as our official business name.

BECOME AN ITR PATRON OR SHOW SPONSOR

Being a patron of ITR is a win-win situation. For ITR, the ongoing support from our patrons allows us to continue producing plays with a sense of stability and security. For our patrons, the satisfaction of supporting community theatre is bolstered by a tax-deductible receipt and advance reservation privileges. ITR's patron levels and benefits are described on our website at <http://www.itrtheatre.com> - just follow the links to the Patrons page.

If you run a business in Osgoode, Manotick, North Gower or anywhere else that our audience members are likely to spend money - please consider becoming a sponsor for our next show.

You can sponsor in cash or in kind, and your company will receive an invoice consistent with the value of your sponsorship. You will also receive an ad in our program book, a shout-out from the stage and an opportunity to display your business cards or other PR materials at our performance venue. For more information, please write to publicity@itrtheatre.com .
